Guidelines for Publication

Utopía y Praxis Latinoamericana (Latin American Utopia and Praxis): Is a periodic, tri-monthly, arbitrated journal which is indexed on a national and international level, and edited by the University of Zulia (Maracaibo, Venezuela) in the Center for Sociological and Anthropological Studies (CESA) ascribed to the Faculty of Economic and Social Sciences, and financed by The Scientific and Humanistic Studies Council (CONDES) at the same University. All contributions requested and/or received must be original unedited papers. No contributions will be accepted that are simultaneously being offered for publication in another journal. The thematic areas that define the profile of the journal are included in the following generic areas of Spanish American and Latin American thought: Latin American political philosophy, the history of ideas, the philosophy of history, epistemology, social science theories and methodology, social, political and philosophical anthropology, ethics and pragmatics, philosophy and inter-cultural dialogue, the philosophy of liberation, contemporary philosophy, gender studies, and post-modern theories. The sub-categories in each area will be defined by the Editorial Committee with the help of its respective national and international advisors in order to establish the pertinence of the papers presented for publication.

Presentation of original texts: The following aspects are considered to be especially important: The title must be concise and directly relevant to the theme studies. Sub-titles are not acceptable. The abstract must describe the central idea of the research and consider its relationship with the objectives and methodology that support it, and be no longer than 100 words. Four key words in alphabetical order must accompany the abstract. The abstract must be written in both Spanish and English. The abstract must be structured in the following manner: Introduction or presentation, general explanation with titles and subtitles, general conclusions and up-dated and specialized bibliography. All of the bibliographical references and notations must be included in footnotes, and numbered in sequence, according to the indications in the section that follows. The recommended lettering font is Arial Narrow 12, spaced 1,5. In addition to Spanish, studies, articles, essays, notes, debates, interviews and bibliographical reviews can be presented in Portuguese, French, Italian and English. An electronic support copy (".doc", ".docx" o ".rtf") e-mail: utopaxislat@gmail.com.

Journal sections

Normal features

Studies: exhaustive research of a monographic nature oriented towards one or several objectives treated in an inter- or trans-disciplinary manner, and developed from an epistemological paradigm. Emphasis is made on critical analysis and interpretation. The article must not to exceed 40 pages.

Articles: precise research of a monographic nature, preferably the result of partial or final research where a reflexive and critical argument in relation to certain theoretical or practical, methodological or epistemological problems is raised and the area of study is explored. The length should not to exceed 20 pages.

Up-dated notes and debates: this is a relatively monographic paper, in which opinions and critical judgements are made in reference to problems and difficulties encountered in re- search processes and results. The length should not to exceed 10 pages.

Bibliographical Reviews: these are collaborative articles that update bibliography, gathering the principle results of national and international research in the form of an individual or collective publication. They emphasize critical analysis on diverse levels (theoretical, methodological, epistemological, political, social, etc.) where the impact of this research can be demonstrated. These papers should not to exceed 5 pages.

Occasional features

Essays: original and personal interpretations, which do not follow the rigid formalities of a monograph, and allow an experienced researcher to present theoretical up-dated postures and to transcend the normal forms of thought and paradigms that are developed in the respective discipline or thematic area. The paper should not to exceed 15 pages.

Interviews: these are the results of interrogative conversations with recognized theorists and researchers in relation to particular aspects of their research and the results of the same which provide the interested community with new information and knowledge in their fields.

Format for bibliographical quotations

These references refer only to quotations from articles, books and chapters of books that are specialized and arbitrated by an editorial committee or evaluated by an editorial text re- view committee (university or publishing house), of recognized prestige in the thematic area of the research topic. General references from encyclopedía, dictionaries, historical texts, remembrances, proceedings, compendiums, etc. should be avoided.

Any exception to this ruling must be discussed and approved by the Editorial Committee.

Evaluation of Collaborative Efforts

All studies, articles, essays, notes, debates and interviews received by the journal will be arbitrated by members of national and international arbitration committees who are well known internationally for their professionalism and knowledge in their respective fields of learning. Their decisions will not be made public. Publication of articles requires the approval of at least two arbitrators. According to the evaluation norms, the following aspects will be taken into consideration: originality, novelty, relevance, theoretical and methodological quality, formal structure and content, grammatical competence, style and comprehension, results, analysis, criticism, and interpretations.

Presentation of and rights of authors and co-authors

Studies and Articles can be presented by one author or two co-authors. The principal author must sign the letter of presentation and direct it to the Editorial Committee, requesting the evaluation of the article for possible publication. A brief curriculum vitae should accompany the request (one for each author in the case of co-authors), and indicate personal and institutional information, as well as most recent publications. The copyright becomes the property of the University of Zulia. For reproduction, re-prints and re-editions of the article by any mechanical or electronic means, permission must be requested from the University of Zulia. The authors will receive an electronic copy of the journal plus the respective publication certifications.
